MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 14th August 1958

SUBJECT:—Validity of Registration No. under the Export Promotion Scheme

No. 71-ITC(PN)/58.—Attention is invited to para 1 of Part I of Appendix XXIII to the Red Book for the current period whereby the firms desirous of obtaining import licences for raw materials under the Export Promotion Scheme are required to register their name with the Port Licensing authority concerned in whose jurisdiction the applicants' place of business/fabrication is situated.

2. It has been decided that once a firm has been registered with the Port Licensing authority for a particular item, there is no need for renewing the registration every half year, and that the registration will remain in force unless the name of the firm is struck off for some reason or other.

3. If, however, the firm after registration has not applied for a licence under the Export Promotion Scheme for a continuous period of 12 months, the registration will lapse.
